2 Stingers named to all-star team for game vs. Canadian juniors

Right wing Edin Burazerovic and defenceman Karl Castonguay of the Concordia men's hockey team have been named to the OUA all-star squad put together to play the Canadian junior national team this coming weekend.

Burazerovic, a native of Longueuil, Que., is in his second season with the Stingers. In 10 conference games this season, the hard-nosed winger has one goal, five assists and 24 penalty minutes. The six-foot-two, 205-pound CIAU Academic All-Canadian comes to the Stingers from the Victoriaville Tigers of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League.

Castonguay is in his third season with Concordia. He is a high-scoring, finesse defender. In 11 OUA games this season, he has five goals, nine assists and two penalty minutes. The six-foot-three, 225-pound Leisure Sciences major comes to Concordia from the Beauport Harfangs of the QMJHL.

Kevin Figsby, head coach of the Concordia men's hockey team, was named to the coaching staff of the OUA all-star team. Murray Nystrom of Brock University will be the head coach. He will be assisted by Figsby and Clarke Singer from the University of Western.

Toronto's Beatrice Ice Gardens is hosting the Canadian national junior team during their selection camp. The exhibition games versus the OUA will be played Saturday and Sunday, both at 5:30 p.m.

The 2001 IIHF World Junior Hockey Championship will take place in Moscow and Podolsk, Russia from Dec. 26 to Jan. 5, 2001. In the 1990s, Canada captured seven gold medals, including a record five gold medals in a row from 1993-'97, and one silver medal in 1999. Canada won a bronze medal at last year's World Junior Hockey Championship in Sweden.

New website for Stingers

The Concordia University department of recreation and athletics is pleased to announce it has launched a new website. The extensive project began in September and was completed in early December. It has sections for each of the department's varsity sports, which include rosters, coaching bios, schedules and results. New to the site are a recruiting section for potential student-athletes, summer sports camp, a sports ticker, expanded alumni and news sections, and more opportunities for feedback from visitors.

The first week the site was up it received 75,600 hits and 10,799 pages were viewed. The most popular pages were news, campus recreation and football, respectively.

The web is an ever-expanding frontier and the department will continue to build and expand its site. In the new year, the priorities will be a flash entry page, photo galleries for each of the varsity sports and expanding the recreation section.

The address remains www.concordia.ca/stingers. Feedback on the site can be emailed to stingers@alcor.concordia.ca.

Jobin, Duong named to football All-Canadian teams

Two members of the 2000 Concordia football team were named to the CIAU All-Canadian teams at a gala awards banquet held in Toronto on Nov. 30.

Steve Jobin, a fifth-year offensive guard, was named to the first All-Canadian team. He has been a starter since he was a rookie. He has made a lot of progress and is considered one of the best linemen in the conference. Jobin was a team captain and an O-QIFC all-star in 1999 and 2000. Jobin, a native of Varennes, Que., is a graduate of the Champlain Cougars and St. Bruno Barons football programs. The last time Concordia had an All-Canadian offensive lineman was 1991 when Jacques Moreau earned the honor.

Loan Duong, also a fifth-year veteran, was named to the second all-star team. He is one of the most dangerous defensive backs to ever prowl the field for Concordia. Duong, who played the half-back position in 2000, has scored six touchdowns in his impressive career – returning interceptions and on magnificent special team plays (blocking kicks). In seven games last season, the Brockville, Ont., native had a total of 37 tackles and returned an interception 83 yards for a touchdown."
